

Worksheet

FAMILY STORIES—TRUTH OR FICTION?

1. What is a favorite family story that seems to have many different versions, depending on who tells the story? Which version seems to be the most common?

.....
.....
.....

2. Can you locate journals or a family Bible that may offer more accurate information about the story?

.....
.....
.....

3. Are there living relatives who were present at the time the events in the story took place? If so, contact each individual and conduct a short interview to get more concrete details.

.....
.....
.....

4. Record several versions of the story along a simple timeline. Look for discrepancies. Is there a way to resolve the mystery details by eliminating the facts you know are false?

.....
.....
.....

5. If the story surrounds a national event, look for additional information sources that could support or deny the validity of the story, such as newspaper accounts or historical records.

.....
.....