

pattern twenty-four { 24 }

Computer fonts, letter stickers, rub-ons, hand-cut letters or die cuts—you'll discover many different ways to title your projects based on the many scrapbook pages in EasyPatterns for Scrapbooking. Don't feel compelled to go buy or do exactly what we've done. Lettering should be interchangeable; use what you have and are comfortable working with.

{ What you'll need }

SUPPLIES

- 9 sheets of 12 x 12 cardstock (6 different colors)
- 2 sheets of 12 x 12 coordinating patterned paper
- 3 ribbon strips in different colors in the following lengths: 13½", 10" and 22"

EMBELLISHMENTS

Choose embellishments to fit your desired style.
We used:

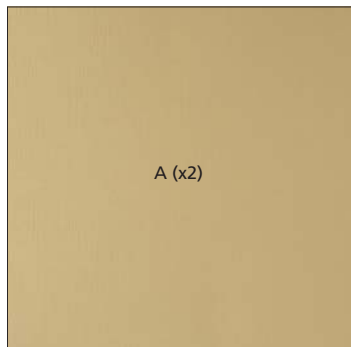

- tags for journaling (1⅞" x 3¾")
- rub-on letters
- photo turns
- acrylic word/design accents
- 1 fabric flower

{ Cut it! }

Use the patterns as a guide to cut your cardstock, patterned papers and ribbon with scissors or a trimmer. Label the back of each piece right away with its corresponding letter. (This will help you keep track of all the pieces.)

{ Assemble it! }

Once you've cut all the pattern pieces, use the sketches to separate the pieces and assemble these projects:

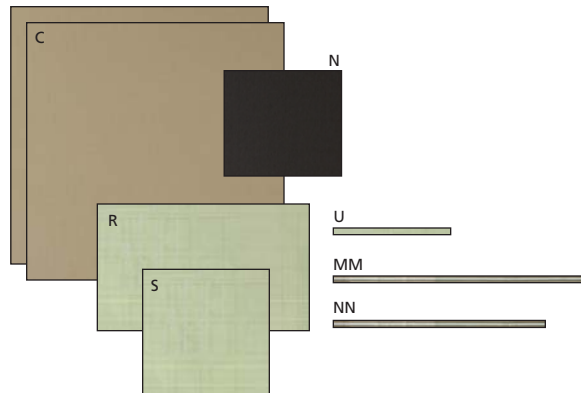

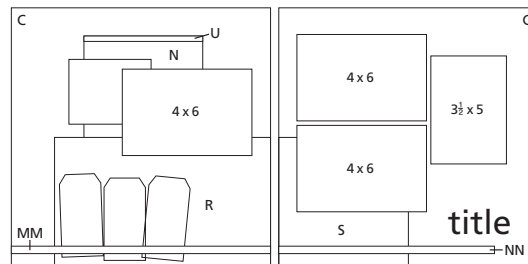

- 3 two-page layouts (12" x 12")
- 1 card
- 1 tag

Together by Brenda Arnall. Supplies Cardstock: Bazzill Basics Paper; Patterned paper: Autumn Leaves; Pen: Pigment Liner, Staedtler; Rub-on letters: Gin-X, Imagination Project; Ribbon: May Arts and C.M. Offray & Son; Acrylic accents: KI Memories; Photo turn: 7gypsies; Tags: Avery; Other: Excerpt torn from dictionary.

To create this project:

- Start with C (two pieces).
- Add N, then U, R and S.
- Adhere dictionary excerpt or substitute an appropriate clipping ($3\frac{1}{2}'' \times 2\frac{1}{4}''$).
- Position and adhere photos.
- If desired, journal on tags (3) and add to page. You can also use cardstock or patterned-paper scraps.
- Add MM and NN.
- If desired, create title by applying rub-on letters to a tag and then cutting the letters apart. You can also use cardstock or patterned-paper scraps.
- Finish with embellishments.
